Recertification Program Overview

Achieving certification through the Mixed Martial Arts Conditioning Association (MMACA) as a Mixed Martial Arts Conditioning Coach (MMACC) ensures that you have achieved the necessary knowledge and ability to apply basic skills and concepts toward designing and guiding efficient, effective and safe training programs and operating your own mixed martial arts conditioning practice as a MMACC.

In order to ensure knowledge, skill and ability levels are not only maintained, but increased, and certification as a professional is upheld, the MMACA requires all Certified Mixed Martial Arts Conditioning Coaches to obtain continuing education on a consistent and continuous basis.

Continuing Education Requirements and obtainment of CEUs

The MMACA requires its certified Mixed Martial Arts Conditioning Coaches to complete 2.0 Continuing Education Units (CEUs) over a two year period. Each 0.1 CEU is worth one hour of study time or one contact hour in a live training format. Any program approved as continuing education for the NESTA Personal Fitness Trainer (PFT) program is also approved coursework for the MMACC. In addition, you may petition various martial arts or performance programs for continuing education credits (please see “Petition for CEUs” below).

The MMACA has chosen a two year time frame for renewal as scientific research and the application of that research changes over the course of a two year period. Mixed Martial Arts Conditioning Coaches must stay abreast of scientific research and its applications as it changes in order to continue to design efficient, effective and safe conditioning programming that is progressively challenging and rewarding at an individual level. MMACA certified coaches are encouraged to learn and obtain further education on a consistent and ongoing basis every year by attending a live training or completing a home study course at least once every 6-9 months and encouraged to exceed the required 2.0 CEUs for recertification.

Recertification Fees and Payment Options

The fee for recertification as a MMACA recognized Mixed Martial Arts Conditioning Coach is $149. Fees and recertification applications with the necessary CEU credits accomplished must be received by the MMACA on or before certification expiration date (as shown on the MMACA PFT Certification Award) to avoid late fees and ensure reception of certification renewal within 30 days of certification expiration.

Recertification applications with necessary completed CEUs and full fee payments are accepted and on time if submitted as early as 90 days prior to certification expiration and no later than the actual expiration date.

Recertification applications are considered late if not received complete on or before certification expiration date by the MMACA and may experience a delay in award of recertification.

Late applications for MMACA PFT recertification will be accepted by the MMACA between 1-90 days after expiration. Late applications will require an additional $25 fee every 30 days late up to 90 days. After 90 days following certification expiration, MMACC certification will be null and void. Formerly certified MMACA Conditioning Coaches who fail to comply with recertification policies and procedures will be required to retake the MMACC exam to be certified and recognized by MMACA.

Recertification Fee	$149 (between 90-1 day(s) prior to expiration)
Late Application Fee	$25 (between 1-30 days late)
	$50 (between 31-60 days late)
